

November 2, 2013
11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Eykamp Hall, Room 251
Ridgway University Center

Take home bread recipes from other cultures.

Understand more about bread in religious rituals and life cycles.

Learn how bread is used during religious holidays.

Interfaith Bread Festival

Bread in Religious Culture

Special pre-screening of "Bread Culture in Jordan" video created in part through Jennie Ebeling's NEH Fellowship in Jordan, Fall 2012.

The video will be screened at the Middle East Studies Association's FilmFest held during their annual meeting in New Orleans October 2013.

- Presentations by religious and cultural communities
- Demonstrations and sampling
- Displays with religious and cultural symbols and colors
- Learn about ingredients, spices, and dyes in bread making
- Recipes will be provided by participants and vendors

UNIVERSITY OF EVANSVILLE

Interfaith Initiatives

Cheese trays and drinks between 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. provided by Office of Alumni and Parent Relations. For more information e-mail Tamara Gieselman at tg85@evansville.edu or Jennie Ebeling at je55@evansville.edu.

THE EVANSVILLE COMMUNITY IS INVITED.